LB 284

PRESIDENT: LB 486 passes with the emergency clause attached. The next bill, Mr. Clerk, is LB 284.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a series of motions on the desk.

PRESIDENT: Read the first motion.

CLERK: Mr. President, the first motion I have is from Senator Newell. Senator Newell...Senator, I understand that you wish to substitute your amendments found on 1576 for those on 1522. Is that correct?

PRESIDENT: Just a minute, Senator Newell, we'll put you on. Proceed, Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, that is correct. I would like to ask unanimous consent to substitute those amendments.

PRESIDENT: You are withdrawing the one and substituting the other.

SENATOR NEWELL: I would just like to substitute it at this point.

PRESIDENT: Okay. Well, we only can take up one amendment at this time, so....Senator DeCamp, for what purpose...?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, as I understand, Senator Newell had one complete proposal and that is in a certain place in line and he now wishes to offer a completely different proposal that is way back at the tail end of the line, thereby moving ahead of, well let's say Johnny's proposal which kind of would be ahead of it. Is that essentially correct, Dave?

SENATOR NEWELL: Senator DeCamp, I am offering to substitute the amendment that I have for....

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes, I know, the net effect is that you move....

SENATOR NEWELL:this proposal....

SENATOR DeCAMP:to the head of the line from the back of the line.

SENATOR NEWELL: I did have both proposals inserted in the Journal for your edification and.....
